

All numbers are in the 608 area code unless otherwise noted.

Centro Hispano

255-3018

Provides information and referral services, employment help, translation, and housing assistance with a focus on serving the Latino community.

Freedom, Inc.

661-4088

Provides advocacy services for Southeast Asian victims of domestic violence.

Ho-Chunk Nation Domestic Abuse Services

888- 343-8190

Comprehensive domestic abuse advocacy services, including shelter assistance and legal advocacy, for Native Americans ages 18-59. Dane County is included in the 15 county service region for this program.

Hmong Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault Crisis Lines

24 hour a day crisis lines for Hmong victims of DV and sexual assault.

- Statewide DV Hotline 877-740-4292
- Hmong DV & SA Hotline 888-345-5898

Military Family Advocacy Program

800-342-9647

Military families can contact this hotline to get information about domestic violence advocacy programs on specific military bases around the world. Call this number to receive contact information for the advocacy program at the base the soldier is assigned to. Can assist victims of soldiers and soldiers that have been victims of domestic violence.

- Fort McCoy (local base) Family Advocacy Program 608-388-2412

Rape Crisis Center

251-7273

Free and confidential accompaniment to medical exams, law enforcement interviews, and legal proceedings. Also provide counseling, support groups, and self-defense classes. Crisis line is available 24 hours a day every day of the year.

UNIDOS Against Domestic Violence

256-9195

800-510-9195

Organization committed to helping survivors of domestic violence in the Latino community access local services.