

DAIS

DOMESTIC ABUSE INTERVENTION SERVICES

If you feel unsafe or controlled in your relationship, DAIS can help.

Intimate Partner Violence (IPV) can present itself in different forms including sexual violence, physical violence, emotional or psychological violence, financial violence, and stalking. IPV occurs in ALL populations regardless of race, sexual orientation, gender identity, or income.

24 HOUR HELP LINE

608-251-4445 • 800-747-4045

DAIS Text Line: 608.420.4638

DAIS Help Line Advocates provide support, information, safety planning, referrals to DAIS services (including shelter) and community agencies. Help line is available 24/7 and is always free and confidential.

CASE MANAGEMENT

Case Managers assess client needs stemming from their IPV and work with clients to develop a service plan, provide support and information, and connect the client with resources within DAIS and with community partners.

SUPPORT GROUPS

DAIS offers peer-based support groups for IPV victims and survivors. The groups are facilitated with the goals of decreasing feelings of isolation and providing information on available resources.

SHELTER

DAIS provides temporary shelter for victims of IPV and their children in potentially lethal situations. Each shelter resident and their family is offered Case Management services and have access to supportive resources for children and adults including advocacy, information and referrals related to self-sufficiency, parenting, and housing. Residents are also offered emotional support, support groups, and time and space to heal.

PARENT, CHILD, AND YOUTH ADVOCACY

The Parent, Child and Youth Advocacy (PCYA) program provides support, information, programming and referrals. PCYA staff can assist with advocacy around the impact of domestic violence on families, childcare and education, parenting, family safety planning, and teen support.

SAAV: SHELTERING ANIMALS OF ABUSE VICTIMS (Non-DAIS Program)

Temporary foster care for companion animals may be available for victims of domestic violence who fear for the safety of their pets. Call the DAIS Help Line for more information.

LEGAL ADVOCACY SERVICES

DAIS Legal Advocates provide support, information, advocacy, and court accompaniment to people who have experienced IPV and stalking. Legal advocates can help with things like filing for restraining orders and navigating family, criminal, immigration and other legal matters. Legal Advocates are not attorneys and cannot give legal advice.
